

COIF

Meaning: To coif means to arrange or style hair in a particular way, often elaborately or carefully.

1. She decided to coif her hair into an elegant updo for the gala.
2. The stylist took great care to coif each section of hair perfectly.
3. He admired the way she could coif her bangs to frame her face beautifully.
4. To prepare for the interview, he spent an hour trying to coif his unruly locks.
5. The vintage photo showed a woman with a meticulously coifed hairstyle that was all the rage.
6. She decided to coif her hair into an elegant updo for the evening gala.
7. The stylist expertly coifed the model's hair, transforming her look for the runway show.
8. After a long day at work, he finally took the time to coif his disheveled locks.
9. In the 18th century, men often spent hours to coif their hair into elaborate styles.
10. The bride asked her friend to help her coif her hair before the ceremony began.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coif>