

COINCIDER

Meaning: COINCIDER (verb): to occur at the same time or in a manner that aligns or corresponds with something else.

1. The events seemed to coincider perfectly, creating an unforgettable experience for everyone involved.
2. In many cases, the timelines of the two projects will coincider, allowing for a more efficient workflow.
3. When our schedules coincider, we should definitely plan that long-overdue dinner together.
4. Her interests and mine often coincider, making our conversations both enjoyable and stimulating.
5. If the two theories were to coincider, it could revolutionize our understanding of the subject.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coincider>