

COLLATOR

Meaning: A collator is a device or person that organizes and assembles documents or materials into a specified order or arrangement.

1. The collator efficiently organized the stacks of paperwork into their respective categories.
2. In the printing industry, a collator is essential for assembling multi-page documents in the correct order.
3. She relied on the collator to ensure that all the brochures were neatly arranged before the big presentation.
4. The new collator in the office has significantly reduced the time spent on manual sorting.
5. As the collator beeped, we knew it had completed the task of sorting the reports successfully.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/collator>