

COLONIZATION

Meaning: Colonization is the process by which a country establishes control over a foreign territory, often resulting in cultural, social, and political changes to the indigenous populations.

1. Colonization often leads to significant cultural and social changes in indigenous populations.
2. The history of colonization has left lasting impacts on the political landscape of many countries.
3. Many scholars study the effects of colonization on the environment and local ecosystems.
4. Colonization can result in the exploitation of natural resources and the displacement of local communities.
5. The debate surrounding the ethics of colonization continues to be a contentious topic in modern discourse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/colonization>