

COMATOSE

Meaning: Comatose: in a state of deep unconsciousness and unresponsiveness, typically due to severe injury or illness.

1. After the accident, he was found in a comatose state, unresponsive to external stimuli.
2. The doctor explained that her comatose condition was the result of a severe brain injury.
3. Despite being comatose for several weeks, her family remained hopeful for her recovery.
4. The comatose patient showed slight signs of brain activity during the latest scans.
5. In literature, comatose characters often symbolize the struggle between life and death.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/comatose>