

COMBER

Meaning: COMBER: A wave that breaks and produces foam as it approaches the shore.

1. The comber gently rolled in from the sea, creating a perfect wave for surfers.
 2. As she walked along the shore, she admired the sparkling white foam of the comber.
 3. The fisherman skillfully navigated his boat through the tall comber that threatened to swamp him.
 4. After the storm, the beach was littered with debris washed ashore by the powerful comber.
 5. Children laughed as they chased the retreating comber, squealing with delight as it touched their toes.
 6. The comber rolled in from the ocean, bringing with it a refreshing mist.
 7. As the sun began to set, a gentle comber lapped against the shore, creating a soothing sound.
 8. The surfer expertly navigated the fast-moving comber, catching the perfect wave.
 9. In the early morning, the beach was quiet except for the rhythmic sound of comber waves.
 10. The fisherman waited patiently for the comber to settle before casting his net into the sea.
 11. The comber approached the beach, creating a frothy white crest as it crashed against the shore.
 12. She wore a comber hat to protect herself from the sun while enjoying her day at the seaside.
 13. The fisherman skillfully navigated the comber waves that threatened to tip his small boat.
 14. After the storm, the comber swept the debris away, leaving a clear view of the horizon.
 15. A flock of seagulls danced above the comber, gliding effortlessly on the wind.
 16. The skilled comber carefully smoothed the wool fibers into a soft, even texture.
 17. As the waves crashed on the shore, the comber expertly navigated the surf with his board.
 18. She admired the intricate designs created by the comber as he worked on the delicate fabric.
 19. The comber's hands moved swiftly, transforming the tangled locks into a beautiful hairstyle.
 20. In ancient times, a comber was essential for preparing materials for spinning and weaving.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/comber>