

COMBUSTIBLE

Meaning: Combustible refers to a material that is capable of igniting and burning easily.

1. The factory had to implement strict safety measures to handle the combustible materials used in production.
2. During the wildfire season, even the most seemingly harmless debris can become highly combustible.
3. It is crucial to store combustible chemicals in properly labeled containers to prevent accidents.
4. The engineer explained that the old building's wooden beams were particularly combustible, increasing the fire risk.
5. In the event of a fire, the combustible items in the room can significantly intensify the flames.
6. The warehouse was filled with combustible materials, raising serious safety concerns.
7. Before starting the fire, he checked to ensure there were no combustible items nearby.
8. The regulations require that all combustible substances be stored in a well-ventilated area.
9. During the fire drill, we learned how to identify combustible hazards in the workplace.
10. In a laboratory, it is crucial to handle combustible chemicals with extreme caution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/combustible>