

COMBUSTIOUS

Meaning: Combustious: characterized by a tendency to ignite or explode, often used metaphorically to describe a volatile or easily provoked temperament.

1. The combustious nature of the chemicals in the lab required strict safety regulations.
2. During the heated debate, his combustious temper nearly got the best of him.
3. The combustious reaction between the two substances produced a bright flash of light.
4. Her combustious personality often led to spontaneous adventures with her friends.
5. In the presence of heat, the combustious material could ignite unexpectedly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/combustious>