

COMFORTMENT

Meaning: Comfortment: a state of physical or emotional ease and contentment.

1. The comfortment she felt in her new home was palpable, bringing peace to her hectic life.
2. After a long day at work, he sought the comfortment of his favorite chair and a good book.
3. Their friendship provided a comfortment that helped them navigate life's challenges together.
4. The warm blanket wrapped around her offered a sense of comfortment on the chilly evening.
5. In times of distress, the comfortment found in familiar routines can be incredibly soothing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/comfortment>