

COMMAND

Meaning: COMMAND (noun): An authoritative order or instruction given to someone to follow.

1. The general issued a clear command to his troops before the operation began.
2. She was able to command the attention of the entire audience with her powerful speech.
3. The software allows users to issue voice commands for hands-free operation.
4. His ability to command respect from his peers was evident during the meeting.
5. In the game, players must command their armies strategically to win battles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/command>