

COMMANDANT

Meaning: A commandant is a military officer in charge of a particular unit or installation, responsible for its administration and discipline.

1. The commandant issued a strict order to ensure the safety of all personnel on the base.
2. After years of dedicated service, the commandant retired, leaving behind a legacy of discipline and honor.
3. During the inspection, the commandant praised the recruits for their exceptional performance in training.
4. The commandant's leadership style was both authoritative and inspiring, motivating his team to perform at their best.
5. In times of crisis, the commandant remained calm and resolute, guiding his troops with unwavering confidence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commandant>