

COMMANDATORY

Meaning: Commandatory: required or mandatory; imposed as an obligation or necessity.

1. The new safety regulations were deemed commandatory for all employees in the manufacturing sector.
2. In the meeting, the CEO emphasized that adherence to the commandatory guidelines was essential for project success.
3. Failure to comply with the commandatory policies could result in significant penalties for the company.
4. The commandatory training sessions aimed to equip staff with the necessary skills to meet industry standards.
5. As part of the initiative, the commandatory measures were implemented to enhance overall workplace safety.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commandatory>