

COMMANDERSHIP

Meaning: Commandership refers to the authority, leadership, and skills demonstrated by a commander in guiding and managing a group or mission.

1. The success of the mission largely depended on the commanders' understanding of effective commanders' leadership.
2. In times of crisis, true commanders' skills emerge, revealing the strength of their commanders' character.
3. Her commanders' instincts guided the troops through the complexities of the battlefield.
4. The importance of strong commanders' presence was evident as they rallied their team to victory.
5. His commanders' reputation for strategic thinking earned him respect among his peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commandership>