

COMMANDING

Meaning: Commanding: having a powerful or authoritative presence that captures attention and demands respect.

1. The commanding presence of the speaker captivated the entire audience.
2. Her commanding voice echoed through the hall, demanding everyone's attention.
3. He stood at the front of the room, exuding a commanding authority that inspired respect.
4. The commanding officer issued orders with clarity and confidence during the drill.
5. In the midst of chaos, her commanding demeanor helped to restore order and focus.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commanding>