

COMMANDINGLY

Meaning: In a manner that asserts authority and demands attention.

1. She spoke commandingly, ensuring that everyone listened intently.
2. The leader entered the room commandingly, capturing the attention of all present.
3. With a commandingly confident stride, he approached the podium to deliver his speech.
4. The teacher's tone was commandingly firm, leaving no room for misinterpretation.
5. He addressed the crowd commandingly, inspiring them to take action without hesitation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commandingly>