

COMMENCEMENT

Meaning: Commencement refers to the beginning or start of an event, particularly a formal ceremony that marks the graduation of students.

1. The commencement of the new school year brought excitement and anticipation among students.
2. She delivered a heartfelt speech at the commencement ceremony, reflecting on the journey of the graduates.
3. The university's commencement exercises were held in the grand auditorium, filled with proud families and friends.
4. After months of preparation, the commencement event went off without a hitch, celebrating years of hard work.
5. The commencement address focused on the importance of resilience in an ever-changing world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commencement>