COMMENTATORSHIP

Meaning: Commentatorship refers to the role or position of a commentator, especially one who provides expert analysis and opinion on events or issues.

1. The commentator's expertise in the field elevated his commentator-ship to new heights.
2. Her commentator-ship was characterized by insightful analysis and a unique perspective on current events.
3. In the world of sports, the commentator-ship can greatly influence how viewers perceive the game.
4. The award for best commentator-ship went to a newcomer who brought fresh energy to the broadcast.
5. His commentator-ship during the live event was praised for its clarity and depth of understanding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commentatorship