

COMMISERATIVE

Meaning: Commiserative: expressing or feeling sympathy and compassion for someone else's misfortunes or troubles.

1. Her tone was commiserative as she listened to her friend's troubles.
2. The commiserative atmosphere in the room reflected the group's shared sense of loss.
3. He offered a commiserative smile, understanding the weight of her disappointment.
4. During the meeting, the manager made a commiserative comment about the recent challenges faced by the team.
5. They exchanged commiserative glances, both aware of the difficulties ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commiserative>