

COMMISSION

Meaning: Commission: a formal request or authorization to create or perform a specific work or to establish a group tasked with a particular function or purpose.

1. The artist received a generous commission to create a mural for the community center.
2. After much deliberation, the board decided to form a new commission to address climate change.
3. She felt honored to be appointed to the commission overseeing the revitalization of the downtown area.
4. The sales team earns a commission based on the total sales they generate each month.
5. He was thrilled to learn that his novel had been chosen for a literary commission aimed at promoting local authors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commission>