

COMMISSIONAIRE

Meaning: A commissioner is a person employed to greet and assist guests or visitors, often in a hotel or public venue.

1. The commissioner greeted the guests with a warm smile as they entered the grand hotel.
2. In the bustling marketplace, the commissioner helped direct tourists to the best local shops.
3. After securing the job, he found that being a commissioner was both exciting and demanding.
4. The commissioner stood by the entrance, ensuring that only authorized personnel could enter the building.
5. Her role as a commissioner required not only good communication skills but also a keen sense of security.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commissionaire>