

COMMISSIONSHIP

Meaning: Commissionship refers to the position or role of being commissioned to create or perform a specific work, often in the arts or creative fields.

1. The artist received a lucrative commissionship to create a series of murals for the new community center.
2. Her dedication to her work was evident in the way she approached each commissionship with enthusiasm and creativity.
3. After years of freelancing, he finally secured a commissionship that would allow him to focus solely on his passion for painting.
4. The gallery owner praised her for her ability to deliver stunning pieces consistently during her commissionship.
5. He was thrilled when he learned that his proposal had been accepted for the prestigious commissionship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commissionship>