

COMMONITION

Meaning: Commonition: a state of shared understanding or agreement within a group regarding a particular issue or opinion.

1. The commonition among the group was evident as they all shared similar opinions on the matter.
2. During the meeting, a commonition emerged about the need for better communication strategies.
3. The commonition in their laughter made the atmosphere light and enjoyable.
4. Despite their differences, there was a commonition that united them in their cause.
5. She felt a sense of commonition with her colleagues, as they all faced the same challenges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/commonition>