

COMPANIONSHIP

Meaning: Companionship is the state of being with someone in a friendly or supportive relationship, providing a sense of belonging and joy.

1. Companionship can often bring a sense of belonging that many people crave.
2. The elderly man found great joy in the companionship of his loyal dog.
3. Traveling alone can sometimes feel lonely, but the right companionship can change that.
4. Building strong companionships requires effort and understanding from both parties.
5. She valued companionship above all else, believing it enriched her life immeasurably.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/companionship>