

COMPARABLE

Meaning: Comparable: capable of being likened to another in quality, value, or significance.

1. The two proposals are comparable in terms of cost and design.
2. Her talent for painting is comparable to that of some of the great masters.
3. The performance of the new model is comparable to its competitors in the market.
4. In terms of durability, this fabric is not comparable to the higher-end options available.
5. Their experiences during the trip were comparable, despite coming from different backgrounds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/comparable>