

COMPASS

Meaning: A compass is a navigational instrument that shows direction relative to the Earth's magnetic poles, typically consisting of a magnetized needle that points north.

1. The explorer relied on his compass to navigate the dense forest.
2. In a world filled with technology, a traditional compass still holds its charm.
3. She felt lost without her compass, unsure of which direction to take.
4. He used a compass to ensure they were heading north during their hike.
5. The antique compass on the shelf had belonged to his grandfather, a sailor.
6. The hiker relied on his compass to navigate through the dense forest.
7. She bought a vintage compass as a decorative piece for her office.
8. During the sailing trip, the captain frequently checked his compass for direction.
9. A compass can be an essential tool for anyone exploring unfamiliar terrain.
10. He felt lost without his compass, despite having a map in hand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compass>