

COMPELLATIVE

Meaning: Compellative: having the power to compel or strongly persuade; forcefully convincing.

1. The author's compelling narrative had a compellative effect on the audience, drawing them into the story.
2. In debates, a compellative argument can often sway opinions and change minds.
3. Her compellative speech inspired many to take action on environmental issues.
4. The compellative nature of the film left viewers reflecting on their own life choices.
5. His compellative logic made it difficult for anyone to disagree with his conclusions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compellative>