

COMPELLED

Meaning: Compelled means being driven or forced to take a particular action due to strong internal or external pressure.

1. She felt compelled to speak out against the injustice she witnessed.
2. The unexpected turn of events compelled him to reconsider his plans.
3. After much deliberation, they were compelled to take action for the greater good.
4. The urgency of the situation compelled her to make a quick decision.
5. His passion for the project compelled him to work late into the night.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compelled>