

COMPELLER

Meaning: A compeller is a motivating force or influence that drives someone to take action or pursue a goal.

1. The author's passion for social justice served as a strong compeller for her activism.
2. In a world full of distractions, ambition can be the greatest compeller for success.
3. His love for music became a compeller that drove him to pursue a career in the industry.
4. The urgency of climate change acts as a compeller for innovative solutions across various sectors.
5. Fear of failure often becomes a compeller, pushing individuals to work harder toward their goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compeller>