

COMPEND

Meaning: Compend (noun): A concise collection or summary of essential materials or information on a particular subject.

1. The professor created a compend of essential readings for the course.
2. Her compend of historical events helped students prepare for the exam.
3. To understand the topic better, I referred to a compend of famous philosophical theories.
4. The library offered a compend of articles that summarized the latest research findings.
5. He designed a compend that featured the most influential works in modern literature.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compend>