

COMPENSATING

Meaning: Compensating refers to the act of making up for a deficiency or loss by providing an equivalent or balancing effort or adjustment.

1. She worked extra hours, compensating for the time she had taken off.
2. The teacher emphasized the importance of compensating for students' different learning styles.
3. They were compensating for their lack of experience with thorough preparation.
4. He believed that compensating for his past mistakes would help him grow as a person.
5. The company is compensating its employees with bonuses for their hard work during the busy season.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compensating>