

COMPENSATION

Meaning: Compensation refers to the payment or benefits given to someone in exchange for work performed or to offset a loss or injury.

1. The workers received fair compensation for the overtime they put in last month.
2. His compensation package included not only a generous salary but also health benefits and bonuses.
3. After the accident, the company offered compensation to the affected families as a gesture of goodwill.
4. She felt that the compensation for her role did not reflect the amount of work she contributed to the project.
5. The court awarded him a significant compensation due to the negligence displayed by the defendant.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compensation>