

COMPENSATIVE

Meaning: Compensative: serving to provide compensation or relief, particularly in financial or material contexts.

1. The compensative measures introduced by the government aimed to alleviate the financial burden on low-income families.
2. In the negotiation, he proposed a compensative bonus to ensure both parties felt satisfied with the outcome.
3. Her decision to take on extra work was a compensative strategy to make up for the loss of income during the pandemic.
4. The company's compensative policies were designed to reward employees who went above and beyond their normal duties.
5. After the accident, the insurance provided a compensative payout to cover medical expenses and property damage.
6. The compensative measures taken by the organization helped to restore employee morale after the layoffs.
7. In negotiations, they proposed a compensative package to ensure both parties felt valued.
8. Her compensative actions after the incident showed her commitment to making things right.
9. The court awarded a compensative sum to the family for their loss during the accident.
10. He believed that the compensative benefits of the new policy would outweigh any initial resistance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compensative>