

COMPETITORY

Meaning: Competitory: characterized by competition, particularly in a context where multiple entities strive to outperform each other.

1. The new marketing strategy proved to be highly competitory in the crowded tech industry.
2. In competitory environments, companies must constantly innovate to maintain their edge.
3. Her competitory spirit drove her to excel in every challenge she faced during the tournament.
4. The competitory nature of the job market means that candidates must stand out to secure positions.
5. They entered a competitory bidding process that involved several top firms in the region.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/competitory>