

COMPILEMENT

Meaning: Complement: something that completes or goes well with something else, enhancing its qualities.

1. The teacher offered a thoughtful complement to the student's insightful presentation.
2. Her dress was a perfect complement to her vibrant personality.
3. They chose a red wine as a complement to the rich flavors of the meal.
4. The new artwork serves as a stunning complement to the modern decor of the room.
5. His compliment about her performance made her day and motivated her to work even harder.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compilement>