

COMPLIMENTATIVE

Meaning: Complimentative: expressing praise or admiration, often in a way that encourages or supports others.

1. Her complimentative remarks about my presentation boosted my confidence.
2. The complimentative nature of her feedback made it easy for him to accept criticism.
3. In a complimentative tone, she praised the team's efforts during the project.
4. A complimentative approach can often enhance collaboration among coworkers.
5. His complimentative response to her artwork encouraged her to pursue her passion further.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/complimentative>