

COMPONENT

Meaning: A component is a part or element that contributes to the functionality or performance of a larger system or device.

1. A reliable power source is a crucial component of any electronic device.
2. The team is working on a new component that will enhance the overall performance of the software.
3. In a successful project, every component must fit together seamlessly to achieve the desired outcome.
4. Understanding each component of the ecosystem is essential for effective conservation efforts.
5. The artist carefully selected each component of the installation to convey a deeper message.
6. The engine is a critical component of any vehicle's performance.
7. Each component of the experiment must be carefully calibrated for accurate results.
8. The software update includes a new security component to protect user data.
9. Understanding each component of the system is essential for effective troubleshooting.
10. The team is working on integrating the new component into the existing framework.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/component>