

COMPOSED

Meaning: 'Composed' refers to being calm and self-controlled, especially in challenging situations.

1. She remained composed during the entire presentation, despite the technical difficulties.
2. The artist composed a beautiful melody that resonated with everyone in the audience.
3. He was composed enough to handle the unexpected question with grace and confidence.
4. After a long day, she finally felt composed enough to reflect on her thoughts clearly.
5. The novel is composed of various interconnected stories, each revealing a different perspective.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/composed>