

COMPOSITIVE

Meaning: Compositive: characterized by the combination or blending of different elements or styles, particularly in art or mathematics.

1. The compositive nature of the artwork made it a unique blend of styles and techniques.
2. In mathematics, a compositive function can greatly simplify complex equations.
3. The compositive elements of the team's strategy played a crucial role in their success.
4. Her compositive approach to problem-solving allowed for innovative solutions.
5. The novel's compositive narrative intertwined multiple perspectives seamlessly.
6. The artist's compositive style blends various influences into a unique masterpiece.
7. Understanding the compositive nature of the community helped in addressing their needs effectively.
8. Her compositive approach to problem-solving allowed for innovative solutions that satisfied everyone.
9. In music, a compositive arrangement often creates a richer listening experience for the audience.
10. The architect's compositive design harmoniously integrated the building with its natural surroundings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compositive>