

COMPOUND

Meaning: Compound: a substance formed from two or more elements or components, or a word made by combining two or more words to create a new meaning.

1. The chemist was excited to discover a new compound that could potentially treat the disease.
2. In linguistics, a compound word is formed by combining two or more words to create a new meaning.
3. The interest rates on the mortgage are compounded monthly, leading to a significant increase over time.
4. The architects designed a compound that included residential, commercial, and recreational spaces.
5. During the experiment, the researchers analyzed the effects of the compound on plant growth.
6. The scientist discovered a new compound that could potentially treat the disease.
7. In chemistry, a compound is a substance formed when two or more elements chemically bond together.
8. The compound interest on her savings account significantly increased her total earnings over the years.
9. Their relationship was a compound of friendship, respect, and a shared passion for adventure.
10. The architect proposed a compound design that integrated both residential and commercial spaces.
11. The chemist carefully mixed the two substances to create a new compound.
12. The word 'houseboat' is a compound noun formed from two simple words.
13. Investing in a compound interest account can significantly increase your savings over time.
14. The researchers discovered a compound that could potentially cure the disease.
15. In grammar, a compound sentence contains at least two independent clauses.
16. The chemist carefully combined the two elements to create a new compound.
17. In linguistics, a compound word is formed by merging two or more words together.

18. The interest rates on the compound savings account offered a significant advantage over traditional savings.
19. Her research focused on the environmental impact of a compound found in common household cleaners.
20. The architect designed a compound that featured multiple interconnected living spaces.
21. The scientist discovered a new compound that could potentially revolutionize the field of medicine.
22. In chemistry class, we learned that a compound is formed when two or more elements chemically combine.
23. The garden featured a beautiful compound of flowers that bloomed in various colors throughout the spring.
24. Investors were excited about the compound interest generated by their savings over the years.
25. Her ability to compound ideas led to innovative solutions for the ongoing project.
26. The chemist synthesized a new compound that could potentially cure the disease.
27. In linguistics, a compound word is formed when two or more words are combined to create a new meaning.
28. The company's financial woes were compounded by unexpected market fluctuations.
29. They decided to build a compound for their growing collection of exotic plants.
30. His compound interest from the investment significantly increased his savings over time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compound>