

COMPOUNDER

Meaning: A compounder is a professional who prepares and mixes substances, particularly in pharmaceuticals, to create customized medications or solutions.

1. The compounder carefully mixed the various ingredients to create a potent solution.
2. In the pharmaceutical industry, a compounder may customize medications to meet specific patient needs.
3. The skilled compounder was praised for her ability to achieve consistent results with complex formulas.
4. With the rise of personalized medicine, the role of the compounder has become increasingly vital.
5. He learned the art of compounding from a mentor who had decades of experience in the field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compounder>