

COMPRADOR

Meaning: Comprador: a local intermediary or agent who assists foreign investors in navigating and connecting with local markets and businesses.

1. The comprador facilitated the transaction between the foreign investors and local businesses.
2. In many developing countries, the role of the comprador has been crucial in connecting global markets with local economies.
3. Historically, a comprador often acted as an intermediary for colonial powers in trade dealings.
4. The company employed a comprador to navigate the complexities of the local market and cultural nuances.
5. As the demand for local products grew, the influence of the comprador in the business landscape became increasingly significant.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/comprador>