

COMPRESS

Meaning: Compress: to reduce the size or volume of something by applying pressure or removing unnecessary elements.

1. The technician will compress the data to save storage space.
2. To create a more compact design, we need to compress these components.
3. He used a special machine to compress the garbage before it was taken away.
4. As the temperature dropped, the gas began to compress, increasing its pressure.
5. She decided to compress the presentation into a shorter format for the meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compress>