

COMPRESSION

Meaning: Compression refers to the act or process of reducing the volume of a substance or the feeling of constriction in a physical space or emotional state.

1. The compression of air in the engine increases its efficiency.
2. She felt a sense of compression in her chest as the news sank in.
3. Compression algorithms are essential for reducing file sizes without losing quality.
4. The doctor explained that compression socks can help improve circulation.
5. As the glacier moved, it caused the compression of the underlying rock layers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compression>