

COMPROMISER

Meaning: Compromiser: a person who is willing to make concessions or find mutual agreements in order to resolve conflicts or reach a consensus.

1. A good compromiser knows how to find common ground in difficult situations.
2. In negotiations, being a compromiser can lead to successful outcomes that benefit all parties involved.
3. She earned a reputation as a compromiser, always willing to listen and adapt for the sake of harmony.
4. As a natural compromiser, he often mediated disputes between his friends with ease and grace.
5. The team's success relied heavily on the fact that their leader was an effective compromiser.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compromiser>