

COMPROMISING

Meaning: Compromising refers to the act of making mutual concessions or adjustments, often involving a willingness to give up certain principles or positions to achieve an agreement or resolution.

1. Compromising on your principles can lead to long-term regret.
2. The team faced a challenging situation that required compromising to reach an agreement.
3. Her compromising nature helped bridge the gap between the two opposing parties.
4. They found themselves in a compromising position when the truth was revealed.
5. It's important to avoid compromising your health for the sake of meeting deadlines.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compromising>