

COMPROMITTING

Meaning: Compromising: causing harm to or jeopardizing the security, integrity, or effectiveness of something.

1. The leak of sensitive information was compromising the security of the entire operation.
2. Her decision to share the documents could end up compromising the integrity of the investigation.
3. Compromising situations can arise unexpectedly, testing one's moral boundaries.
4. He realized that his actions were compromising his relationship with his colleagues.
5. The company faced backlash after compromising its values for profit during the scandal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compromitting>