

COMPULSATIVELY

Meaning: Compulsively: in a manner characterized by an irresistible urge or compulsion to perform a specific action repeatedly.

1. She compulsively checks her email even when she knows there's nothing new.
2. The child acted compulsively, unable to resist the urge to touch the shiny object.
3. He compulsively organizes his books by genre and author every few weeks.
4. Many people bite their nails compulsively during stressful situations.
5. The therapist suggested that she find healthier ways to cope with her compulsively driven behaviors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compulsatively>