

COMPUNCTIVE

Meaning: Compunctive: relating to or characterized by a feeling of guilt or remorse for wrongdoing.

1. The compunctive feeling he experienced after lying to his friend was palpable.
2. She felt a compunctive urge to apologize after overhearing her harsh words.
3. Despite his success, a compunctive voice in his head reminded him of his past mistakes.
4. The novel explores the characters' compunctive emotions in response to their choices.
5. In therapy, they discussed the compunctive guilt that often followed their impulsive actions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/compunctive>