

COMPUTER

Meaning: A computer is an electronic device that processes data and performs calculations, typically consisting of hardware and software components.

1. The computer on my desk is running a new software update.
2. She spent the entire afternoon troubleshooting her computer's connectivity issues.
3. Many students rely on their computers for research and completing assignments.
4. The advancements in computer technology have transformed the way we communicate.
5. He prefers working on a laptop computer because of its portability and convenience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/computer>