

COMRADESHIP

Meaning: Comradeship refers to the bond of friendship and mutual support shared among individuals, especially in a group or during challenging situations.

1. The spirit of comradeship was palpable among the team as they celebrated their victory together.
2. In times of crisis, true comradeship shines through, uniting people in ways they never thought possible.
3. Their years of shared experiences fostered a deep sense of comradeship that went beyond mere friendship.
4. The military training emphasized the importance of comradeship, teaching soldiers to rely on one another in critical situations.
5. Volunteers often find a unique sense of comradeship while working side by side for a common cause.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/comradeship>